

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED LIVE CORRESPONDENTS

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND.

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties.

New London County

ROAD SOCIETY

(Stonington.)

Miss Anna Chesebrough who has been a guest of friends in Westerly for some days has returned to Charles Street.

Miss Cynthia Williams spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. John D. Avery of North Stonington.

Miss Grace D. Wheeler attended the 21st general meeting of the Conn. D. A. B. in New Haven, Monday. More than three hundred dollars was handed in to state treasurer for the redemption of the $5,000,000 bond held by Connecticut. Our Regent, Miss Addie Thomas, Miss Julia Smith and Miss Wheeler were from the Anna Warner Bailey chapter.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth W. Williams were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Lord on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Noyes and daughter Louise, returned to New York that evening. Miss Martha C. Williams returned to Boston Sunday night.

Mrs. Edw. Allen of Hapington motored to Maple Lawn, Monday.

Miss Annie Ripley had a large gathering of friends with her on Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Palmer returned from Boston where they spent Thanksgiving with their son's family.

B. F. Williams spent Thanksgiving with his son, F. L. Williams, in New York.

H. N. Crandall has been spending a few days with friends in New London.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mattison had as guests at Thanksgiving, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin White and daughter Emma, of North Stonington.

Parley Johnson of Springfield, who spent Thanksgiving at S. N. Billings, returned Friday.

Funeral of Mrs. William Edwards—Section New Without a Stars.

Mrs. William Edwards, 78, died at the home of her son Isaac, Tuesday. The funeral was held Friday with burial in Rhode Island.

William Johnson, who was thrown from a motorcycle last week, and badly injured, is getting along as well as could be expected.

Mrs. Julia A. Crumb spent Thanksgiving at a family gathering at the home of her mother, Mrs. F. E. Wilcox in Ledyard.

Edwin T. Main and friends were callers at Wyassop Pond, Sunday.

Samuel D. Pierce of Ristown was a recent caller in Norwich.

Sigfried Ahlberg and family entertained friends from New York recently.

NORTH FRANKLIN

ROAD SOCIETY

At the home of Mrs. A. R. Dostiller there was a pleasant gathering on a recent afternoon when the members of the Ladies Aid society met with Mr. Dostiller, the date being her birthday. During the afternoon the ladies presented her a casserole.

The following committee have been appointed to arrange for a Christmas concert and entertainment for the members of the Versailles M. E. Sunday school: Mrs. F. H. Topf, Mrs. William Kinder and Miss Anna Peckman.

Mrs. C. E. Seagman was called to Northwood, Mass., Wednesday by the illness of her sister.

Mr. James Caldwell and Mrs. Emma Warner were entertained Thanksgiving day at the home of Mrs. N. S. Loomis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mahoney and family have returned after spending several days with Mrs. Leon Ladd of Norwich.

Mrs. Reuben Manning entertained on Friday Mrs. Ernest Manning and children of Thomastonville and on Saturday Arthur Randall of Goddard.

Mrs. C. A. Gager, Jr., and Mrs. Luella Gager of Norwich spent Monday with Mrs. Hannah Kingsley.

Miss Clara and Sarah Johnson and Isaac Johnson of Windham were callers on Mrs. O. L. Johnson Sunday.

Mrs. and Mrs. Addison Rockwood and family spent Thanksgiving with Mr. Warren Briggs of Lebanon.

C. H. Peckham and her mother attended a missionary meeting and social at the home of Mrs. E. E. Leffingwell Tuesday.

Mrs. Sarah Moseley of New London and Miss Henrietta Conner of Niantic were entertained on Thanksgiving at Mr. and Mrs. William Smith's.

Mrs. and Mrs. Theodore Crandall entertained on Thanksgiving Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crandall and daughter, Myra, of South Windham.

Mrs. Frank Case, Mrs. C. H. Peckham and Mrs. Hannah Kingsley spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. O. B. Leffingwell of Leffingwell.

Miss Bernice Ives of South Windham and Miss Henrietta Conner of Niantic were recently with Miss Myrtle Clark.

Sherman Loomis, aged 91, walked over a mile Tuesday, accompanied by a son, Loomis, who has not walked so far in five years and his visit was a great surprise to his neighbors.

NORTH STONINGTON

Rabbit Supper at the Grange—Hewitt Family Leaves for City Home

Rev. E. O. Foster of Columbia supplied the pulpit of the Congregational church on Sunday. He was entertained at the home of Mrs. E. E. Beckett.

The Ladies Aid society of the Third Baptist church met at the residence of Mrs. Reuben D. Cook. The last hour of the afternoon was devoted to a home mission meeting conducted by Mrs. F. A. Thompson.

OAKDALE

Massachusetts Company Hurrying to Fill Big Order From English Government For Gun Cotton

At the Congregational church Sunday the pastor, Rev. G. L. French spoke from Acts 20. The C. E. meeting at 7 p. m. was led by Mr. French, topic, Missionary Heroes and Heroines 2 Co. 4:1-18.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turner, Miss Ella Turner and Mrs. Martha Brainard of Palmertown attended church at Montville Center Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Glasbrenner and daughter, Alice, were callers at the home of Allen Latham, of the Scotland road, Norwich the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Rogers and their niece, Hope Comstock, visited friends in Salem Sunday.

Order From English Government. Business at the plant of the Massachusetts Manufacturing company here is on the increase. Having a large order from the English government, for gun cotton they are erecting two stock houses 250 feet x 40 feet.

A new garage has also been erected for the superintendent, P. E. French. The Ladies Social union met Wednesday afternoon at the parsonage.

GLASGO

Cottage Prayer Meeting—Ladies Aid Society Preparing for a Sale

The cottage prayer meeting at R. A. Wilbur's was attended by about thirty. Miss Gladys Thompson returned to Boston Sunday and Miss Laura Young and Benjamin Young to their schools.

After spending the Thanksgiving recess at their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Burton spent Thanksgiving at Newent with Herbert Irons.

Miss Mabel Blanchard was the guest of friends at Storrs. The last of the week, returning home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thorpe of Westerly were guests at Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Edwards Thanksgiving.

Miss W. E. Given returned from Hartford Sunday.

FOURTEEN ATTEND MEETING.

There was a good attendance at the Ladies Aid society meeting held at the home of Mrs. Harry Kinney, fourteen being present. A quilt and fancy work was done for the sale.

G. Bill attended the funeral services of Mrs. William Richardson at North Stonington, Monday.

Miss Ida Gustafson goes to New York today (Saturday) to spend the winter with her sister, who is a graduate nurse in that city.

HAMBURG

Miss Emily Pierson of Cromwell has engaged Grange hall for Wednesday evening, Dec. 9, for an equal suffrage meeting.

PENDLETON HILL

Teachers Visit Willimantic Schools—Hunters Get Two Coons

The Ladies Sewing society held an all-day meeting at the parsonage on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hillard spent a few hours at the C. Dwight Thompson house Sunday.

Miss Brown, teacher at Clark's Falls, was the guest of Miss Mary Chapman, Tuesday night. Wednesday Miss Chapman, Miss Brown and Miss Thompson visited schools at Willimantic.

Miss Bertha Lewis of Voluntown was a caller in this place Sunday afternoon.

ROAST PIG DINNER.

Mrs. James N. Cook entertained a Thanksgiving party at a roast pig dinner. Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown of this place, Mrs. Edward Ryder and child of Apportion, R. I., and Miss Brown of Canochet were among those present.

Got Two Coons. George P. Olfmore and wife spent the week end at his farm on the Ryeview road. He with his guests and John Geer captured two coons on Saturday night.

Malcolm Thompson has purchased and is having erected several tons of hay from Preston.

Sheffield Douglas and family spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Douglas parents.

Mrs. Martin Chapman and daughters were entertained by Mrs. Chapman's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Cox of Jewett City, on Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Simon Palmer and Mr. James of Hope Valley were at Mrs. Homer Kinney's.

BOZRAH

Congregational Sunday School Sends $5 to Albanian Sufferers' Relief Fund—Grange and Personal Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bishop and Miss Alice Bishop attended one of the series of meetings given under the direction of the Grange in Lebanon Monday evening.

Several from Bozrah grange attended the Norwich grange meeting Friday evening.

Mrs. Della Gager of Stonington and Mrs. C. A. Gager, Jr., of Norwich spent Monday with Mrs. E. E. Lathrop.

There was a teachers' meeting in Fitchville Wednesday evening.

Mrs. George O. Stead was a visitor on Lathrop Hill one day recently.

MEETING POSTPONED.

On account of a stormy evening the grange meeting was postponed. At the next meeting there will be election of officers.

LEDYARD

Pullets Sent to Sugar Brook Farm—Women of Congregational Church Stock Larder and Cellar for New Pastor and Family.

Rev. O. G. Buddington of Mystic, supplied the pulpit of the Congregational church on Sunday morning, he being one of the best pulpit orators the church has had since Rev. W. F. White was pastor.

A number of guests gathered at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. Kellogg Hall, on Preston Plains Friday evening. Singing, games, etc., were enjoyed by the young people present.

Abner Bennett substituted for Charles Sweetser on Rural Route No. 6, on Monday, while Mr. Sweetser attended the funeral of Mr. Sweetser's mother.

Pullets Sent to Mousup. D. D. Taylor shipped on Monday to Sugar Brook farm of Mousup, 123 pullets, the varieties being White Leghorns and Buttercup. Mr. Taylor received $123 for the lot.

The Grange supper which was to be held Friday evening has been postponed for one week.

Mrs. D. D. Taylor who has been visiting relatives in Mansfield, Boston, Great Barrington and Springfield, Mass., returned Tuesday.

Miss Gladys Holdridge has been the guest of Mrs. E. E. Holdridge for the past week.

New Pastor Arrives. Rev. Mr. Goodenough, the newly called pastor of the Congregational church and family arrived in town on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Goodenough and Mrs. William I. Allen until they get their goods settled in the parsonage.

Rev. Mr. Goodenough will commence his duties as pastor of the church on Sunday. During the past week several ladies of the church assisted by Mr. Christy have prepared, painted and washed the church.

The ladies carried potatoes, turnips, carrots, apples, pumpkins, citron, onions, beans and preserves to the parsonage. Rev. Mr. Goodenough and family will find enough vegetables to last them all winter.

Charles S. Hewitt and Calvin Hewitt of Lathrop Hill have been carpentering at the parsonage during the past week.

Newton Maynard who has been assisting Rev. Mr. Goodenough in taking a religious canvass in the central and western part of the state, arrived home on Sunday evening.

Carrie M. Gager of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin R. Main is ill and unable to attend school.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Holdridge of Providence, R. I., and Mr. and Mrs. William Cromwell and family of Mrs. Sarah H. Main at Lathrop Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. E. Holdridge were Sunday callers of Miss Lucy H. Main at Lathrop Hill.

Mrs. Ellen Stoddard and son, Alton, of Groton, Conn., were in Lathrop Hill and week end visitors with Mrs. Isaac G. Jeer.

D. D. Taylor who has been ill is better.

BROKE SHOULDERBLADE.

Carlton Gallup, son of former Judge and Mrs. Russell Gallup fell on the door step and broke his shoulder blade. The fracture was reduced by Dr. Sweet of Lisbon.

SHOT A FOX.

James H. Belden added another fox to his long string of catches Thursday morning.

A teachers' meeting was held at the Center schoolhouse Thursday afternoon.

Elmer Crouch who formerly lived in Quabtown is working in Bristol on Mr. and Mrs. William E. Rogers of Groton, spent Thanksgiving with Hiram Whipple and family.

CLARK'S FALLS

Old-Fashioned Rag-Sewing Bee at Mrs. John Perry's.

Alfred M. Clark was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clark at Westerly Thanksgiving day. Mr. and Mrs. Elbert W. Clark entertained at dinner Mr. and Mrs. Harback of Providence and E. P. Chapman and son, Postmaster E. D. Chapman.

Deane Brown and sister, Miss Alva Perrin visited Mr. and Mrs. Everett Brown Thursday.

Mrs. John Perry had a rag-sewing bee at her home Thursday.

Maurice Perry was in Westerly on Sunday.

George H. Brown and Jesse Fish are building a school at the chapel on the John Stillman farm.

Mrs. Charles A. McGrath has been entertaining friends from Massachusetts.

LAUREL GLEN

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Maine were Thanksgiving guests of their son, Clyde, on Pendleton Hill.

Myron Holdridge was a week end visitor at his mother's, Mrs. Lydia Holdridge's.

There will be no preaching services or singing school at the chapel on the fourth Sunday throughout the winter.

Bourden Geer has been ill for the past two weeks.

Mrs. Birch was a visitor in Westerly Sunday.

Beatram Holdridge spent Thanksgiving day at her mother's, Mr. Puttler is home from New York.

LEBANON

Ladies Aid Society Gives Luncheon Supper and Held Sale.

Martha Manning of Willimantic spent Friday with Everett L. Tucker, Mrs. W. B. Royall was in New London on Wednesday evening in the conference room. A variety supper was served from 8 to 8 o'clock. The sales amounted to about $60.

OLD MYSTIC

Burial of Capt. Thomas E. Welles in Florida—Holiday Sale Nets $50—Mrs. Benjamin Brown Dies at 91.

Mrs. Welles and son, Frank Welles, left Boston Friday morning, Nov. 27th, with the body of Capt. Thomas Everett Welles for their home in Pensacola, Fla., where Capt. Welles will be buried in the family plot. He was a native of Old Mystic, the son of the late Russell Welles and Fannie Peabody Welles.

Dies at 91. Mrs. Julia Crumb Brown, widow of Benjamin Brown, died Sunday afternoon after a week's illness from a shock. She was in her 92d year.

Holiday Sale. The Baptist Ladies Aid society held the annual sale of aprons and fancy articles, home made candy and mysteries Wednesday evening in the conference room. A variety supper was served from 8 to 8 o'clock. The sales amounted to about $60.

Dear Mrs. W. B. Royall, N. Y., who is a frequent visitor at Old Mystic, has been elected a member of the committee to revise the constitution of the state of New York.

The Baptist Young People's union will hold its semi-annual election of officers Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Williams. After the business session a social hour will be enjoyed.

The United Workers of the Methodist church met Thursday afternoon at the parish house.

Miss Whipple of the U. S. S. Georgia is spending a brief furlough with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Whipple, at Whitehall.

Clark Barnes of Bridgeport, Conn., returned to Storrs Agricultural college.

Notes of the Holiday. Robert Young of the life saving station at Fisher's Island spent Sunday here with his family.

Mrs. Wallace A. Phillips returned to Bridgeport Monday after a week's visit to her sister, Miss Susan H. Babcock.

Alfred Mathew has returned to East Lyme after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Mathew.

Frank Clyde of Boston is spending two weeks vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clyde.

Miss Florence Clark of Norwich returned Monday to her duties at the Old Mystic school.

Miss Eleanor Eckman, a teacher at the Old Mystic school, enjoyed the Thanksgiving vacation at her home at Storrs.

Mrs. Benjamin E. Welles and son are guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Loomis, of Norwich.

Leave for City Home. Mr. and Mrs. George Koch have returned to Brooklyn, N. Y., after spending the summer and autumn at their bungalow on the west bank of the Connecticut river.

Everett Johnson has returned to Middletown after spending the holiday with his mother, Mrs. T. Henry Johnson.

Shepard K. Haines has returned to Long Island after spending a ten days' vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis A. Williams.

Miss Frances Eldridge has resumed her duties as teacher at Hop River after spending the Thanksgiving recess with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry H. Eldridge.

Mrs. George G. Welles is the guest of Mrs. Fanny Caswell of Plainfield.

Stephen Egglestone has returned to his home at Norwich after a visit to Albert A. Haley and family.

Miss Marjorie Harris has returned to South Manchester to her duties as teacher after spending the Thanksgiving recess with her mother, Mrs. George Harris.

Miss Ellen Burrows of Passaic, N. J., has been spending a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burrows.

Miss Helen Clyde has returned to her duties as teacher at Newburyport, Mass., after spending the holiday recess at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clyde.

If you want to please the man who drops in for a short call and social chat, bring out a bottle or two of The Famous Narragansett Lager Ale Porter

"BEST BY FAR"

Narragansett products are brewed carefully from choicest barley malt, imported Sazer Land Hops and pure water.

W. B. Royall's Thanksgiving day. Don Troland spent Thanksgiving in New London.

Lunch Counter Supper. The Ladies Aid society gave a lunch counter supper and fair of fancy work, aprons, mystery packages and candy. A good crowd was present. Forty-nine dollars was taken in.

GARDNER LAKE

Arthur Freedman Wins Bride in New York—Visit of Cottage Owners.

Mrs. Ida Crabb, formerly of this place, now of Franklin, is laid up with a dislocated thigh.

Marriage Announced. Cards have been received in town announcing the marriage of Arthur Freedman and Miss Mary Singer of New York. Mr. Freedman, a former business man, has many friends in the place who wish him and his bride success and happiness.

Joseph L. Ost and friends spent the week end at the Ost cottage, Spring Grove.

A new teacher has been engaged to teach in the Bulkeley district. The young man is boarding at Clinton Gardner's.

Leon Abel, who has had a severe attack of liver trouble, is now out and attending school.

Clifton Hopkins and friends from Brooklyn, N. Y., have returned after spending several days at the Hopkins cottage, Spring Grove.

Dr. Irwin Maynard of Norwich and Mrs. Burdard of Montville were at the lake recently, looking over their newly acquired property on the south shore.

Capt. and Mrs. E. T. Pettigrew, Mrs. P. O. Moses and Miss Ann Moses of Groton and Mrs. W. E. Sylvester of New London were visitors at E. L. Lathrop's Monday.

Ernest Latimer is serving on the jury in Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lathrop entertained a family party on Thanksgiving day.

LIBERTY HILL

Supper and Musical Entertainment at the Church—Farm Sale.

Friday evening a supper was served by the church people at the hall from 6 to 8 o'clock, after which a musical entertainment was given by the Mansfield orchestra, at the church.

J. Henry Clarke is serving as juror at the superior court in Norwich.

Those who spent Thanksgiving here were Mr. and Mrs. George A. Trotter of Newton, Mass., at Mrs. E. A. Noyes', Dr. Harold Harvey of Chicago and William F. Harvey of Norwich.

Horace Grotte, Edward L. Moffitt of Norwich at Mrs. E. L. Moffitt's, Village Hill, and daughter, Miss Myra E. Moffitt, who teaches in Exeter.

Deane Brown and sister, Miss Alva Perrin visited Mr. and Mrs. Everett Brown Thursday.

Mrs. John Perry had a rag-sewing bee at her home Thursday.

Maurice Perry was in Westerly on Sunday.

George H. Brown and Jesse Fish are building a school at the chapel on the John Stillman farm.

Mrs. Charles A. McGrath has been entertaining friends from Massachusetts.

Elmer Crouch who formerly lived in Quabtown is working in Bristol on Mr. and Mrs. William E. Rogers of Groton, spent Thanksgiving with Hiram Whipple and family.

Alfred Mathew has returned to East Lyme after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Mathew.

Frank Clyde of Boston is spending two weeks vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clyde.

Miss Florence Clark of Norwich returned Monday to her duties at the Old Mystic school.

Miss Eleanor Eckman, a teacher at the Old Mystic school, enjoyed the Thanksgiving vacation at her home at Storrs.

Mrs. Benjamin E. Welles and son are guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Loomis, of Norwich.

Leave for City Home. Mr. and Mrs. George Koch have returned to Brooklyn, N. Y., after spending the summer and autumn at their bungalow on the west bank of the Connecticut river.

Everett Johnson has returned to Middletown after spending the holiday with his mother, Mrs. T. Henry Johnson.

Shepard K. Haines has returned to Long Island after spending a ten days' vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis A. Williams.

Miss Frances Eldridge has resumed her duties as teacher at Hop River after spending the Thanksgiving recess with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry H. Eldridge.

Mrs. George G. Welles is the guest of Mrs. Fanny Caswell of Plainfield.